MURDER RESULTS FROM STRIKE RIOT

Innocent Bystander Is Killed When Pickets Quarrel With Police.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cleveland, O., June 10.—One man is dead, another is under arrest, charged with first degree murder, and six others are under arrest, charged with disorderly conduct as a result of to-day's developments in the strike of 6,000 garment workers here.

A quarrel between pickets stationed in front of the H. Black Company's plant and policemen caused the killing.

The dead man is George Zeman, a teamster, an entire stranger to the dispute, who was taken to a hospital with bullet wounds under his heart and in his groin. He died four hours later.

The man under arrest, charged with first degree murder, is Benjamin Aquino. Those charged with disorderly conduct are Miss Josephine Case, an organizer from Chicago, and five others, pickets at the H. Black Company's plant, who are alleged to have hoisted the police and to have called workers inside the factory "scabs."

The shooting took place shortly after a detail of police, specially ordered to the scene to watch the strikers, had arrived.

MAY BE SENSATIONAL

Husband of Mary Garden's Sister Sues for Divorce.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Philadelphia, Pa., June 10.—Proceedings for divorce have been instituted by John D. Lagen, a real estate broker of this city and New York, against his wife, Amy Garden Lagen, sister of Mary Garden, the grand opera singer. While the main allegation is desertion, it is understood that the case will develop sensational and that prominent men and women will figure in it.

Mrs. Lagen is well known in Philadelphia, and on account of the fact that she is almost constantly with her sister, is well known in musical circles all over this country and Europe. According to reports, she deserted her husband in September, 1908, and refused to return, much preferring the life she is leading with Mary Garden.

AVIATOR SCHMIDT HAS CLOSE CALL

Machine Smashed Into Splinters, but He Escapes With Minor Bruises.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., June 10.—Aviator George Schmidt, of New York City, owes his life to-night to rare presence of mind, for he came near being crushed to death this afternoon, when he was attempting to make a flight in a Curtiss biplane. As it was, he escaped with a few minor hurts, but his machine was smashed into splinters, and much of it was carried off by souvenir hunters. In attempting to fly over a ravine, Schmidt claims, he was caught by a cross-current and his plane began to dip, and when about fifty feet in the air it swooped down against the trunk of a locust tree, in collision being a few inches to the left of Schmidt's seat. Schmidt saw his danger and leaped to the right, and was thrown out of the way when the aeroplane struck. He was able to walk back to the starting point. This was the nearest Schmidt came to flying in three afternoons of an attempted aviation meet under auspices of local commercial organizations.

of the road, who are asking for wage increases of approximately 25 per cent. It is not expected that a settlement will be reached for several days. The engineers are making no strike threats, and while they hope to have their petition granted, it is understood that they do not contemplate an effort to force compliance.

Delegations representing the conductors and trainmen are here waiting to present claims that will be considered as soon as the railway settles with the engineers.

FIGHTS EXTRADITION

Member of Wealthy Family Does Not Want to Face Charges.

Kingston, N. Y., June 10.—Ellur Yale Smith, member of a wealthy New York family, who is in jail here, charged with passing worthless checks on Chicago hotel keepers, will fight extradition, and the matter will be heard by Governor Dix, at Albany, on Monday.

Detective Sergeant J. W. Burke was surprised upon reaching here to-day to learn that the warrant of extradition had not been signed. Smith has retained Everett Fowler, a local lawyer, to oppose his extradition to Illinois.

WILL SEE MAINE RAISED

Brigadier-General Bixby Leaves for Havana To-Day.

Washington, June 10.—To witness the raising of the wrecked battleship Maine, Brigadier-General Bixby, chief of engineers of the army, will leave Washington to-morrow for Havana. His departure will follow the inspection by that of the naval board of inspection and survey, which will represent the navy. General Bixby also will make an inspection of the coast defenses in the South as far as Galveston.

TRIED SEVEN DOCTORS

My Life Saved by Pe-ru-na.

Mr. S. S. Johnson, Greenville, Ill., writes: "I was for five years troubled with catarrh. Two years ago I had one foot in the grave. I had tried seven doctors, and also went to a catarrh specialist in St. Louis, and took several kinds of medicine. I could not walk more than a hundred yards without resting."

"My friends told me to take Peruna, and I did so. I now feel that Peruna has saved my life. It is the best medicine on earth, and I would not be without it."

BILL AS AMENDED MAY BE REJECTED

them in our civilization, and we cannot have adequate permanent competition in them.

"Adequate taxation of the idle lands of the company on the other hand will break the monopoly of all the great trusts. Their true control lies in the hands they hold and which they force to be idle."

Representative Francis, of Ohio, favored a lower duty on manufactured wools, but said a lowering of the duty on raw wool would wipe out the sheep industry of the United States.

Representative Tribble, of Georgia, Democrat, favored the Democratic bill to reduce all wool and woolen duties.

Evidence All In.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—The special committee appointed by the Senate two years ago to investigate the "third degree" practices of police officials, met to-day and decided to hold no more hearings. The committee has collected a mass of information and will prepare a report pointing out abuses. It is not probable that the committee itself will undertake to press any reform legislation, but some members may introduce bills as a result of the committee revelations.

Many May Lose Jobs.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—A conference of Republican senators will be held Tuesday to consider the Senate pay-roll and the personnel of employees. A large number of employees are holding office by virtue of appointment by senators now no longer in the chamber, and if the successors of those senators desire to fill the places with men of their own choosing, the incumbents will be ousted. It also is likely that a number of employees will be considerably reduced.

To Insure Pure Elections.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—With a view of insuring the widest publicity of all the expenditures of candidates for Congress, the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections next week will complete a bill to amend the law applying to corrupt practices, so as to further insure the purity of the ballot.

Much Difficulty Is Being Experienced in finding terms which will express the purpose of the committee. It is proposed to make the law applicable to primary as well as regular elections, and this fact presents one of the intricacies of the problem. The various kinds of primaries now being used make it difficult to deal with all in the same terms. An individual is counted by both candidates for the Senate and House will be required. An amendment will be made to the law applying to corrupt practices, so as to further insure the purity of the ballot.

BANKERS SPEND DAY IN RICHMOND

Inspect Street Railway Property and Make Quick Run to Petersburg.

Highly pleased with Richmond both as a field for profitable investment and as a place where hospitality is always at hand, the party of bankers from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, who arrived here Friday night, left on private cars over the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad this morning at 4:50 o'clock. The stay in the city was one that combined business and pleasure most happily. Most of them are interested in or contemplate some financial connection with the Virginia Railway and Power Company, and much of the time was taken up with an inspection of the local lines and those of Petersburg. As many of the lines as possible were inspected, together with the power houses of both cities.

The visitors left the Jefferson Hotel yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, making the run to Petersburg in special cars, and, returning, looked over the Twelfth Street power house and the eastern section of the city as they passed. They would permit. Later they were entertained at lunch at the Westmoreland Club as the guests of President William Northrop, of the Virginia Railway and Power Company. The car ride was then resumed, this time to the West End, ending at the Country Club. Dinner at the Jefferson.

With the bankers as hosts, an informal dinner given at the Jefferson last night, Captain Alexander R. Gullon, representing the Virginia Railway and Power Company, made the principal speech, giving a brief history of the company. He called attention to the fact that the system had not "drained up" for their reception, and assured them that they were getting, with the exception of special cars, the same service that the citizens receive every day in the year. Captain Gullon very modestly admitted that the company's service did not come up to the requirements of every passenger, but he thought the majority of patrons realized that the system was about the best to be found in the South.

A. G. Hoy responded with many good wishes for the people of Richmond in general. For each member of the party he expressed the pleasure of the visit, not failing to compliment the street railway company.

The dinner over, there were several good hours of the early night, so the party returned to the Country Club, where the air was cool and plentifully furnished with thunder and lightning. They returned to the City Club on the "Owl" schedule, where they were tucked away, to awake somewhere between here and Baltimore this morning.

GENERAL REYES FORCED TO QUIT

into an expression of the effects of the revolution.

"I have nothing but praise for the valor of the men who fought on both sides in the revolution that has just ended," he said. "I do not wish you to cherish any ill feeling toward those who have trusted me. I have fought not against the army, but against the dictatorship of the last thirty years."

As he spoke, surprise was apparent in the faces of not only the cadets, but the crowd that stood behind Madero. It was the first hostile word that had been spoken in the precincts of the Military Academy against the man who once had occupied the presidential palace, which adjoins the Military Academy.

A Tentative State.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Havana, June 10.—According to cipher messages received to-day by Mexico City, Francisco I. Madero is to return to Washington as ambassador, and General Crespo is to be sent to return to Washington as ambassador. General Reyes is slated for Secretary of War. Orozco for general-in-chief, Vicente Gomez for Secretary of Justice; Adolfo Reyes for Secretary of Education and military governor of the federal district, and Madero's brother for the treasury. Orozco will be in command of the forces in Lower California and restore order there.

Wilson Asks Transfer.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Mexico City, June 10.—The report is current in the American colony here that Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson has asked to be transferred from this city to another. At a late hour to-night it is impossible to confirm this report.

Moderate in Claims.

Washington, June 10.—Although the Chinese diplomatic mission to Mexico is nominally a part of the legation here, the Chinese government has kept Minister Chang at Washington out of touch with the situation in Mexico City to deal directly with the foreign office at Peking regarding the investigation of the killing of the several hundred Chinese laborers recently. It is the understanding at the legation here that moderation will characterize the Chinese claims for indemnity. There is no disposition on the part of the Chinese to be unreasonable in demanding a settlement. The Chinese government will be satisfied.

Is the Tuberculosis Crusade Losing Ground?

Despite all the efforts being made by advocates of fresh air treatments, the number of new cases has not been noticeably decreased. Write to us and ask to be referred to persons who took Eickman's Alternative for a few days, well and strong without a trace of tuberculosis, pronounced so by physicians.

MISSING GIRL'S BROTHER WEDS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, June 10.—D. Hincley Arnold, brother of Dorothy Arnold, and Miss Mildred Culver, a chum of the missing girl, were married to-day. Only about twenty guests were present. The shadow of the family tragedy hung over the wedding in the great care that was exercised to maintain secrecy. The bridegroom averted his face from the small crowd about the door. Miss Culver, who followed a few minutes later, held her bouquet before her face and hurried up the steps. The bride took an active part in the search for the missing Dorothy, making several trips out of town to follow up clues.
